ITEMS FOR ORIENTATION

Item 7/2023 Updates from CEMO since the last meeting

Interim Centre Director, Rolf Vegar Olsen, provided an update on activities at CEMO since the last board meeting. He highlighted the following in his presentation:

- Sigrid Blömeke passed away in July. A few of the gestures that have been organized for her has been a memorial in August, an obituary written in the newspaper, words of memory on our webpages and a protocol of memory will be sent to her family.
- CREATE formally started on 1 July with Arne as the Director and Ronny Scherer as Deputy Director. An internal kick-off meeting was held with the strand leaders in August. CEMO will co-locate with CREATE.
- FREMO conference was held 6-7 september and was a bit success. 118 registered participants. It was partly funded from the CEMO budget and FREMO research group.
- Master's program: CEMO has seen an increase in students from Scandinavia. There are three fully paying international students. There was an inquiry on how we accommodate our PhD students when they have come from our master's program since our courses are double coded. We have developed a satisfactory solution to this where those students take a specialized reading course.

Faculty of Educational Sciences

- Financial situation: Rolf provided an overview of the financial situation at CEMO and a more detailed overview will be presented at the board meeting in December.
