

ILLUSTRERT KOMMUNIKASJONSMATERIELL (IKM)/ ILLUSTRATED COMMUNICATION MATERIAL
Name
Purpose:	Illustrert kommunikasjonsmateriell (IKM) is intended as conversation support for people who communicate with a person with aphasia
Short description:	The folder is originally prepared at Aphasia Institute, Toronto. Illustrated communication material contains thematically organized image material, which in combination with keywords and supportive conversation techniques, enables conversation around complex topics
Academic area/skills:	Supportive conversation techniques
Target group:	Adults
Survey method:	Individual
Standardization:	Not stated
Adapted/non-adapted to Norwegian conditions:	Norwegian edition
Published:	2003
Author:	Aura Kagan, Johanne Winckel, Elyse Shumway
User groups/user qualifications:	Speech therapists and special needs educators, other health care professionals (doctors, nurses, activity therapists), social workers, lawyers, family / friends / care professionals