

GUY'S COLOUR VISION TEST FOR YOUNG CHILDREN
Name	GUY'S COLOUR VISION TEST FOR YOUNG CHILDREN
Purpose:	To assess children's color vision
Short description:	The test consists of 8 charts made in color. The charts are designed so that one can see letters in color on a colored background. Children with defective color vision will see colors other than children with normal color vision
Academic area/skills:	Color vision
Target group:	3-5 years
Survey method:	Individual
Standardization:	The test is not standardized
Adapted/non-adapted to Norwegian conditions:	No
Published:	1973
Author:	Peter Gardiner
User groups/user qualifications:	Professionals who have been trained in the use of the test